Waisman Resource Center is home to the Southern Regional Center for CYSHCN, one of five Wisconsin Regional Centers for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs that are a part of a statewide network providing free and confidential information and assistance to parents of children and youth with special health care needs and the professionals who work with them. Wisconsin Regional Centers are dedicated to meeting families' needs through information, referral and follow-up, parent-to-parent support and service coordination, through local Public Health Departments and other community agencies.

2014
Resource Roadmap
Southern Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs
(CYSHCN)

Childcare and Respite:

Childcare resource and referral agencies are located throughout the Southern Region. Family Connections of Southwest Wisconsin will direct you to the closest program in your area. 608-348-2846/ 800-267-1018 www.familyconnectinsswwi.org

Respite care provides families with a qualified caregiver and a break from 24 hour care responsibilities and is a needed resource for most families with children and youth with special health care needs.

Iowa County Health Department:

The Iowa County Health Department provides community health services based on health promotion, disease prevention and education. It also provides environmental health, immunizations and maternal child home visits. Call 930-9870

Special Education:

Special Education is a set of school programs that have been developed to meet the educational needs of children with learning or emotional disabilities. Usually the school will determine if a child needs special education during the Individual Education Program (IEP) process. Each school district will have a designated Special Education contact person. Contact your district with questions.

SWCAP Head Start:

Head Start is a free child development program for children ages 3-5 and their families. Head Start provides a variety of education, health and family services to enrolled families such as preschool, play groups and home visits. Call 935-935-3379

Birth to Three Program:

This is an Iowa County Unified Community Services Program for children who may need extra help with catching up to other children their own age in mobility and speech. Free screenings and evaluations. Parents are part of the team and help decide what your child may need. To refer your child, call 935-2776 and ask for the Early Intervention Specialist.

24 -Hour Information
Hotlines:
Wisconsin First Step
1-800-642-7837

www.mch-hotlines.org/firststep.html
A statewide 24-hour information and referral service with trained parents of children with special health care needs and professional counselors who are available to talk over concerns, answer questions and identify resources to meet a caller's needs. Some topic areas include housing, recreational activities, community centers, transportation, domestic violence, energy assistance and support groups.

Economic Support Program:

This unit of the Department of Social Services provides access to financial and assistance programs such as Social Security, Medicaid, Food Share, energy assistance, and more. Many of these programs have eligibility criteria. The Economic Support Unit staff can help with these often complex governmental programs. Call 930-9801

Health Care Coverage:

In Wisconsin there are various ways to meet eligibility criteria for Medicaid (Medical Assistance) programs such as BadgerCare Plus, SSI and Katie Beckett. These programs help pay for medical care for eligible children and youth with special health care needs. Each eligibility category has different criteria; some are based on parent income and assets and others are based on the child's unique needs and the level of care required to live at home. Call 930-9801

Family Support Program:

This program recognizes the needs of children with severe disabilities may cause families emotional, physical and financial hardship. The program provides goods and services to help families meet the extraordinary care needs of children with severe disabilities. To refer your child, call 935-2776 and ask for the Family Support Coordinator. Located at Unified Community Services, 1122 Professional Drive in Dodgeville

Planning for Adulthood:

Youth ages 14 to 21 with disabilities and their families can receive help with planning for the transition to adulthood. Activities include moving from pediatrician to adult health provider and exploring opportunities in education, work and community living. Examples of these include WI Division for Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), Department of Public Instruction (DPI) and Independent Living Centers (ILCs).

Advocacy and Parent Training:

State and local agencies provide information and assistance for families looking for information on how to best understand, protect and advance the legal, human and service rights of children and youth. Examples include legal assistance, help with an IEP and health benefits counseling. Parent training groups help parents learn about resources and how to be a good advocate for their children.

Other Community Resources:

Many organizations are geared to a specific special need or are inclusive of all children. For examples see "Iowa County Resources" on the back side of this document.

Iowa County Department of Social Services:

Iowa County Department of Social Services is an umbrella agency that houses many of the Children and Families programs. Each program is described on this map. Please contact Iowa County Department of Social Services with questions at 930-9801

Resource Roadmap for Iowa County is the product of a collaborative effort between the Southern Regional Center for CYSHCN and the Iowa County Health Department. Concept originally developed by the FOR U staff at the Chippewa County Health Department.
