

TRAINING FOR FAMILIES, YOUTH AND PROVIDERS

“What’s After High School?” - Training on Transition

“What’s After High School?” is a broad overview of the transition to adult life for young adults with disabilities and special needs and includes the following topics:

- planning for the future
- the role of schools
- long-term supports
- vocational resources
- moving into adult health care
- supported decision making
- basics of self-determination

This training is ideal for families who have children ages 14 - 21 and providers and school staff who work with young adults with special needs. Youth are welcome to attend.

When: Monday, April 16, 5:30pm – 8:00pm (check-in and dinner start at 5:15)

Where: Kromrey Middleton School (Community Room)
7009 Donna Drive | Middleton, WI 53562

Cost: The training is free to participants. A light meal and a resource binder will be provided.

Register: Register online go.wisc.edu/zhc4ha or contact Sonja at the Southern Regional Center at 608-265-8955 or soetzel@wisc.edu

* Please register by April 12 to guarantee your meal and binder! ****

This training is co-sponsored by Family Voices of Wisconsin, Middleton Cross Plains Area School District and the Southern Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs

Middleton
Cross Plains
Area School
District

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): Family Voices will provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities attending our workshops or events. If you require accommodations, please contact Lynn@fvofwi.org